Crochet Berry Parfait Blanket by Michelle Tang

www.greetingarts.typepad.com

This crochet baby blanket is a traditional ripple stitch that is reversible, so it looks great on both sides. The high contrast colors give it a fresh bright look.

Crochet Berry Parfait Blanket

General Notes:

The stripe repeat for this blanket is 3 rows of Color “A” Valentine, 3 rows of color “B” Blush and 3 rows of color “C” Fluff.

At the end of each 3 row section, cut the yarn and join new color, crocheting over ends as you go.

The 3 stitches for the turning chain counts as first Double Crochet for the next row.

Begin: Ch 143 sts.

Row 1: DC in 4th ch from hook. *DC in next 4 sts, dec 2x, DC in each of the next 4 sts, 2 DC in each of next 2 sts; rep from * across row, ending with 2 DC in last st. Ch 3 and turn.

Row 2: DC in first st (counting the chain 3, there are 2 DC in this first st), *DC in each of next 4 sts, dec 2x, DC in next 4 sts, 2 DC in each of next 2 sts; rep from * across row, ending with 2 DC in last st. Ch 3 and turn.

Repeat Row 2 changing colors every 3 rows until blanket measures 43” long.
End with 3 rows of Color “A”. Do not ch 3, fasten off yarn.

Finishing: Weave in ends and block if needed.
